News from the Refugee Sponsoring Committee: As you know, our community has been sponsoring the Alrayes, a Syrian refugee family of six. Ziad, Eman and their four children between the ages of 6 and 16, arrived in July 2017. You may have met them last September or at the potluck that was held this past spring. All the members of the family have spent the past year adapting to life in Canada and learning French. As they continue their French classes this fall, the father, Ziad, would like to find part time work. The eldest son, while continuing his studies at St. Henri High School, is already working part time at a restaurant several evenings a week. Ziad is looking for a job in maintenance in the evenings or weekends. If you know anyone who could help him in his job search please contact Dina Amicore at 514-781-3773. Thank you.

Please also continue to pray for this family, for members of their family who are still living in a war-torn country, and for all refugees.
