

Marriage and Fatherhood: The Power of Love

This weekend, we celebrate Fathers' Day. More than ever, our families need the real presence of loving fathers: strong and tender, courageous and vulnerable, engaged in the outside world and committed to their home and family. Today, we pay tribute to all fathers in our community for their generous witness to fatherhood as a spiritual path. Good, strong, loving fathers make such a huge difference in the lives of their children, both girls and boys.

Jesus derived his identity in large part from the trust and delight he enjoyed from his heavenly Father: "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." On this Trinity Sunday, we recall with gratitude that it was out of love for ALL his children that the Father entrusted his Son to us, to share our humanity: "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that all who believe in him might have eternal life." Jesus lived at once totally united to his heavenly Father, and profoundly united to his "human" father, St. Joseph: a "just man", a loving husband to Mary, hardworking, entirely dedicated to guiding and protecting the family entrusted to his care. Thus was Jesus prepared and empowered to embrace his full identity and vocation.

This weekend, we also celebrate God's covenant love reflected in those who have embraced covenant love with a partner through the sacrament of marriage. So as we pray for all those who have struggled to live out the vows of marriage or have never found that person with whom to share their lives, let us also give thanks for the couples in our parish who bear witness to Christ through a love that is faithful, committed, and life-giving. It is our joy this weekend to welcome to share their witness to marriage Suzana and Oscar, from the marriage enrichment movement Les Équipes Notre-Dame.

*How beautiful the radiant bride / Who waits for her groom with His light in her eyes
How beautiful when humble hearts give/ The fruit of pure lives so that others may live
How beautiful the feet that bring / The sound of good news and the love of the King
How beautiful the hands that serve/ The wine and the bread and the children of earth
How beautiful, how beautiful, how beautiful is the body of Christ!*

TO FATHER WITH LOVE

Some things will always be in style
Good solid things like honesty, and trust and caring about people.

It's qualities like these that keep us aware of who we are and what we can give to life.

It's qualities like these, father, that you've taught me to value, through your influence, your example, and your love.

It has made me love you very much,

And has made me very proud to have you for my father.

Congratulations & Best Wishes

This weekend we celebrate all those who have been joined by God in the holy sacrament of matrimony. We celebrate those newly married in the past year, the many couples God has blessed with a long and happy marriage, and those in between. We give thanks to God for his day-to-day presence in the lives of all married couples, and for the blessing that their love for each other is for our community. We pray that God, in his great love, will continue to bless them with great joy and long life together.
