

ALL SAINTS DAY

The catholic church celebrates “ALL SAINTS” Day “on November 1st”. All Saints Day is intended to honor the memory of countless unknown and uncanonized saints who have no feast days. Today we thank God for giving ordinary men and women a share in His holiness and Heavenly glory as a reward for their Faith. We invite you all to come and join with us to celebrate ‘All Saints’ Day, on Wednesday, in our Holy Eucharistic celebrations at 8.30 am.

ALL SOULS DAY

November 2nd, in a special way the church, remembers all our faithful departed; those we have known and loved - family members and good friends. We remember them before the Lord. We invite you all with your family and friends to come and join with us in our eucharistic celebrations on Thursday. We have two masses on Thursday at 8.30 am and 7.00 pm. We ask you to bring the photographs of your deceased beloved ones to the Holy Mass and place it in the table in front of the altar and take it back after the mass ends.

FAITH & JUSTICE COMMITTEE

Act now for Our Common Home

In his latest encyclical Laudate Deum, Pope Francis stresses the urgency of acting now on behalf of our Common Home. The Faith & Justice Committee is inviting parishioners to come explore what possibilities are achievable for us in regards to Pope Francis’ urgent request.

DEVELOPMENT & PEACE

Development & Peace is beginning its Fall Campaign with the theme “Stand for the Land. “ Over the next few weeks you will be able to read more about the importance and necessity to support their cause. At the end of this campaign we will be asked to sign a letter addressed to the Ambassador of Honduras. The following are quotes from human rights workers in Guapinol, Honduras. “Communities are displaced, human rights violated, access and right to water are denied. All this is to give priority to extraction and pillage of resources.” Leonel George. “We live every day with the fear of being killed or having one of our children taken away.” Juana Zuniga.

FAITH SHARING

Our Faith Sharing group will begin meeting again on November 2nd, All Souls Day at 2:00pm in the Rectory basement. We will meet for 7 consecutive weeks each Thursday, and then adjourn for Christmas and resume again in the Lenten season.

As previously mentioned, we will share on Scripture, and on Macrina Wiederkehr’s commentary from Abide: Keeping Vigil with the Word of God. If you are interested in joining, please contact Barbara DeLorenzi at (514) 486-5884. Book purchases are necessary and can be obtained through the book store, Theologia, at (514) 889-3564.

Please join us Sunday, November 5th @ 10am in the Sacristy on the choir side of the church.
